2. PRESENTATION OF DIFFERENT CONCEPTS FROM PARTNER COUNTRIES

Partners presented the implemented and planned activities of the NTVIS project.

PP4 Oznur Cakir, MUDURNU İLÇE MİLLİ EĞİTİM MÜDÜRLÜĞÜ (TR): presented a visit to a Rest Home in Bolu where old people were taught to use mobile phones, Facebook and Instagram social networks.

PP6 Emil Demirev, REGIONALNA BIBLIOTEKA “PENCHO SLAVEYKOV” (BG): presented the four educational case studies.

- The first activity is titled How to prepare banitsa? The video presented an old woman showing to a young lady how to cook the traditional Bulgarian banitsa. The video reveals the entire process step by step. After the cooking lesson the young lady teaches the old woman how to work with a mobile device - tablet.
- The second activity is titled Re-creation of the traditions carried on Eniov Day. A folk group from the Manastir village makes the custom revive. How to gather herbs is shown on the video and how to make wreath of flowers. The symbolic meaning of every detail of the custom is described in details. The local librarian who is presenting the story of the custom, has been educated to upload videos on Facebook.
- The third activity is How to make a tapestry. The video presents an old lady explaining to a young one how the tapestry could be made as a piece of art. She shows the main stitches and colors. The young lady teaches the old one how to search information for Bulgarian tapestry and embroideries on the Internet.
- The fourth activity is Lets learn the Horo Dance. The video shows one of the Horo Dances step by step to young people from Zvezditsa village. The participants show to their trainee how to upload a video lesson on Youtube.

PP2 Daniel Weiss CIBERESPACIO (ES) –presented work with senior people. They were educated to take pictures and make videos with a mobile device – iPad.
